DOWNTOWN DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY MINUTES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS REGULAR MEETING OF APRIL 12, 2019

1. Call to Order: By Chairperson Bobbi Lovins at 12:18 p.m. at Lathrup Village City Hall, 2nd Floor The Meeting Place, 27400 Southfield Road, Lathrup Village, MI 48076

	DDA DIREC	TORS - AT	TENDANCE
Χ	Bobbi Lovins, Chairperson	A*	Sheryl Mitchell, City Administrator
Χ	Dan Sugg, Vice Chairperson	X	Fred Prime
Α	Jet Dhaliwahl	A*	Sam Surnow
Α	Vernon English	Х	Dan Verderbar
X	Kelly Garrett, Mayor
Χ	Ryan Hertz		(* Absent with notice)

Other pressent: Pamela Bratschi (Treasurer), Susie Stec (DDA Director), Chris Clough (Parks & Recreation Coordinator), Diane Anderson (resident)

2. Approval of the Agenda:

Motion by Verderbar, second by Sugg; approved unanimously on voice vote.

3. Financial Review, March 2019: Revenue & Expense, Activity/Journal Report; Comparative Balance Sheet: Pam provided an overview regarding the large withdraw from the Farmers Market account which was due to the repayment of Double Up Food Bucks. Nothing had been turned into the state two years ago, so the account had not been settled and money was owed to the state. Pam also indicated that she closed the Farmers Market account at Michigan First Credit Union due to problems; all remaining funds went to the DDA.

Motion to Receive and File Financial Reports by Sugg. Second by Lovins. Approved unanimously on a voice vote.

4. New Business:

a. Approve 2019/2020 Fiscal Year Budget: The Board discussed the proposed budget. There was significant discussion regarding the Farmers Market; Chris Clough was introduced at this time. He expressed some of the challenges including recruiting vendors and low attendance. Clough indicated that he intends to use some of the funds budgeted on things to draw people in, such as a petting zoo or face painting. Sugg suggested getting sponsors for a petting zoo. Garrett suggested looking into All About Animals and other pet adoption organizations.

Motion to approve 2019/2020 Fiscal Year Budget by Sugg. Second by Garrett. Approved unanimously by voice vote.

5. Other Business

- a. Committee updates: Stec stated that committee meetings will start again in May. Committees will provide monthly reports to the Board. Lovins stated the Board should be looking at the 2014 Master Plan for goals. Sugg said guidance needs to be provided to the committees
- b. Director Update: Stec informed the Board about the "Partners in Preservation" grant being pursued for the Annie Lathrup School. Finalists will be announced in May/June. Also, Stec reminded the group about the joint meeting with City Council & Planning Commission on April 30, 2019. Finally, there was a brief discussion regarding a Southfield Road Corridor Clean-Up. Stec suggested sometime in May; the Board decided Saturday, June 1st would provide more time for planning.
- 6. Public Comment: None

7. Adjourn:

Motion to adjourn by Sugg. Second by Prime. Adjourned at 1:36 p.m.

Resolving Conflict on Main Street:

JUNE 19 2019

— 8:30 a.m. to 4:15 p.m. —

The Treasury | 30 N. Saginaw Street Pontiac, MI 48342

Register Today: AdvantageOakland.EventBrite.com

Cost: Free | Registration required by June 16 Note: While registering online, provide three questions/ situations you need to resolve in your work. See session five for more information on the group exercise.

Learn how to improve your communication and reduce conflict – while producing better results for your community and strengthening your relationships with stakeholders.

Downtown and corridor development is a complex undertaking that touches and connects diverse groups of stakeholders from across your community. With so many people involved, communications can get bumpy. This workshop will help you improve your communication skills and provide ways to manage difficult situations and personalities. Avoid the pitfalls that can hinder your community's progress.

Hear tips and best practices to strengthen communication with staff, board members, local leaders and volunteers. Gain communication approaches to help you improve your downtown or historic commercial corridor.

Participate in discussions on how best to build a plan that effectively communicates your vision, goals, strategies and value to the broader public. Expand your circle of partners, funders, volunteers, businesses and supporters.

Who Should Attend

- Main Street, Downtown Development Authority and Non-Profit Organization Leaders, Staff, Boards and Volunteers
- City, Village and Township Elected and Appointed Officials, Boards and Staff

Agenda

8:30 a.m. Sign In and Light Breakfast

8:45 Welcome and Introductions

9:00 Session One: Focusing Your Internal Communications to Build Downtown Advocates

Cristina Sheppard Decius, CMSM, owner, POW! Strategies, Inc., and executive director, Downtown Dearborn Focusing a downtown's communications strategy on its internal stakeholders is one of the strongest ways to build supporters and advocates for your downtown — while spreading the good word. During this quick tutorial, you will learn how to build your own internal communications strategy using best practices. You will hear perspectives from a panel of key internal stakeholders. This session focuses on the significant role that city officials, staff and administration; and DDA/Main Street board members, staff and volunteers all play in moving downtowns forward.

10:15 Break

10:30 Session Two: A Tale of Two Projects—Lessons Learned in Meaningful Community Engagement

Jordan Twardy, director, Community & Economic Development, city of Ferndale

Kara Sokol, director, Communications, city of Ferndale

Sharing their experience with two major project opportunities in recent Ferndale history, the speakers reveal lessons learned and best practices that have worked for their community to achieve better development outcomes and build stronger relationships with their community. Topics covered include methods of outreach, addressing resistance and identifying and resolving community concerns.

11:45 Lunch on your own to experience downtown Pontiac's eateries

1:15 p.m. Session Three: Strategies for How to Properly Manage Meetings

Kathleen Bertolini, analyst II, Human Resources, Oakland County Jason M. Deneau, analyst II, Human Resources, Oakland County

Having difficulty managing meetings? Learn how to manage them more effectively with strategies for working with argumentative, disruptive or negative participants; regaining balance; and keeping up momentum for more effective and productive meetings.

2:10 Break

2:20 Session Four: Strategies for How to Properly Manage Different Personalities

Kathleen Bertolini and Jason M. Deneau

Learn how to manage the different personalities in your downtown — while maintaining your relationships in order to effectively do your job as a DDA director/Main Street manager. You can acquire the skills needed to help you navigate the different opinions and ideas while building consensus and partnerships with vested stakeholders in the unique environment of a downtown.

3:15 Session Five: A Real-World Group Exercise

Kathleen Bertolini and Jason M. Deneau

This session is a group exercise working through real-world communication issues. The topics will come from you. During your online registration or at check-in, you will submit three questions or situations you are facing at work. These could involve any of your stakeholders (e.g., board members, residents, clients, etc.). Provide something relevant to you to be discussed with the group.

4:00 Q&A

4:15 p.m. Close

Networking option at Exfermintation: 7 N. Saginaw Street, Pontiac
